GETTIN' TO THE SOURCE...

As we look back, what do we see?
Who are we here for?
Why are we here?
Centenary College . . .

Ah yes, we complain but we love,
we feel downtrodden but we stay,
it's a hard time — it's a fun time.

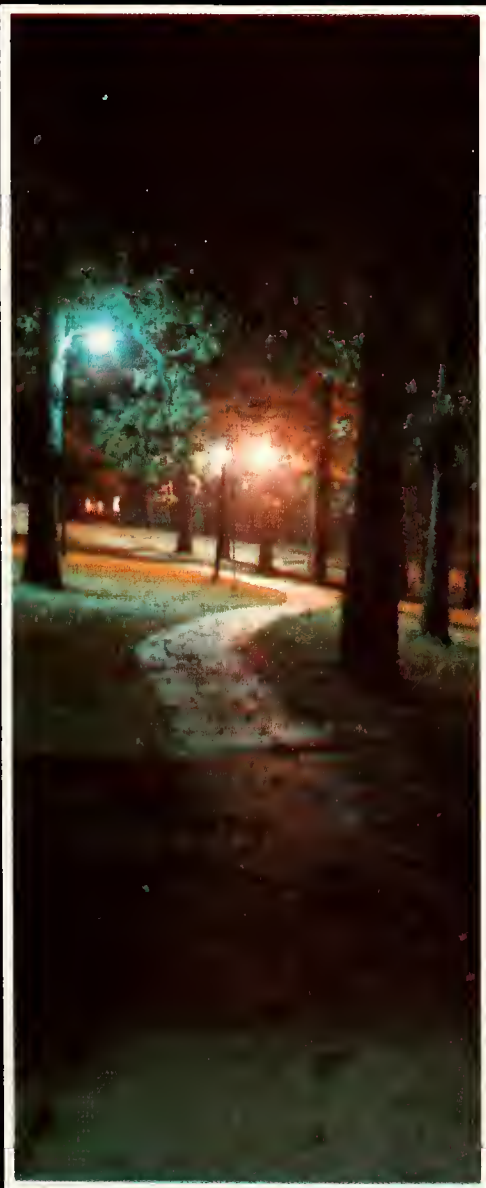

What holds us close?
What keeps us going?
Why do we give all of ourselves to our school —
even through it all?
How can we get to the source?

Does it begin with the people?
Faces . . . Smiles . . .
Feelings . . . Voices . . .
Friendships.

Is the source of our school life found in the buildings? . . . the classes?
. . . the concern for becoming real people?
. . . the effort at making something of our lives and our school? . . .
the parties? . . . the Faith?

Is ours the life of an adult? . . . the life of a child? . . . The life of a socialite? . . . The life of a student?

Do we have faith in the
"here and now"? . . .
or in our own minds?
. . . In what's to come? . . . In reliance on those we care for?
. . . Or in God's guidance? . . .

Do we have faith in ourselves?

As another year has passed, do we look back and remember the all-nighters . . . hitting the caf promptly at 4:30 . . . trying to catch the person who was jogging up and down the halls of the dorm . . . middle of the night trips to Walker's . . . falling asleep in class . . . three a.m. kidnaps . . . doing our own laundry for the first time . . . and most of all, will we remember a year of new administration, new faces, new obstacles, and new enthusiasm? . . .

. . . you tell me . . .

GETTING TO THE ACTION.

STUDENT LIFE

College life is a time of change, a time when everything we do is affected by our student roles. New experiences, new faces and new ideals all intertwine with our past to make up our present life, that of a student.

What is that life? It's a life of term papers, roommates, inedible food, allnighters, and weekends. It's a life of questioning, confusion and a small amount of hope that when we leave our secluded little world after eight semesters we will be better people and more prepared for a life in the outside world.

THE HASSLES OF COLLEGE

. . . Moving out . . . Grades

SENIOR!

Dorm life is a unique and sometimes frustrating experience. Fire drills that are always followed by moans, groans and dirty looks; dorm meetings which often seem ridiculous; quiet hours, and being locked out of your suite. All of this and more makes up the interesting life of a dormitory.

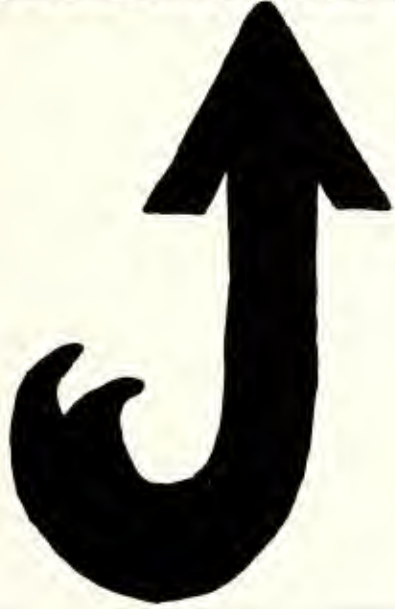

Fortunately, the good times outweigh the bad. The laughter, sharing, and growing that comes from living with a variety of people makes it all worthwhile. There will always be the noisy group suite the hall.

The misery of an empty mailbox for two weeks straight. But even from these hassles of dorm life we learn a great deal — mainly, patience.

A NEW HAMILTON

"How tall did you say he was?" . . . "We ought to play that song about short people instead of the chimes!" . . . "He's from where?" . . . "What day do we get out for inauguration?" . . . "They say he's a preacher, Centenary-seminary, maybe he's confused!" . . . "Have you met him? . . . "I want to meet this guy for myself!" and the talk went on and on and on . . .

Each fall semester the Centenary community is greeted with the challenge of many new faces, but this year there was a special face in that crowd. The face of a man small in stature yet big in ideas, a man who came to help our small liberal arts college survive, someone interested in us and our needs, someone who listened as well as spoke and learned as well as taught.

With him came another new face, a new Dean of Students and then there were those familiar faces that suddenly had different offices and different titles. Thus, a new administration was created, a Dean that came to a dorm party dressed as a flapper, administrators that still had time to be our advisors, a president that leads cheers at basketball games in his spare time, but mostly a group of caring individuals.

We are very lucky for we have administrators that seek to understand us, people interested in individuals not numbers and though they may sometimes arouse frustration in us they always search for solutions. Our administration is unique. They have to be; we are!

Traditions are not known for surviving at Centenary but nothing will stop us from having a good time, so one tradition is left intact — All Campus Weekend. All Campus Weekend is a time when nobody has a choice whether they like mud or not, a weekend when roller skating isn't really that queer, a weekend where suddenly old bicycles appear, and amazingly enough no one has homework. This year was no exception to the rule. The child in us took over once again and the sophisticated airs and graces of college coeds seemingly disappeared for forty-eight hours. We won and lost races, enjoyed an off campus dance, mellowed out on blue grass music and thoroughly enjoyed ourselves!

“Party” is a very common word among most Centenarians. It is a word which lights up eyes, cures depression, helps us make it through classes, and may often cause a bad test grade. No matter what the consequences, partying will continue because our social life is many times the one thing that helps us make it through “the worst semester of our life” and on to the next.

A party may have a theme or be unplanned or spur-of-the-moment. But either way it allows us to relax our bodies and minds and gives us some small incentive to continue through this unpredictable chain of events some call college.

PARTIES! PARTIES! PARTIES!

College is known for its tensions and hassles. It is because of these irritations that we all need a hangout. A place of some security that we can go to at our leisure to relax and unwind. It doesn't matter if it's your fraternity house, an eating place in Shreveport or just your dorm room as long as you can enjoy yourself and feel a sense of identity while you're there. Hangouts are very important to us as students and will hold many significant memories for us in years to come.

WHAT WAS OUR YEAR?

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair."

FACULTY PACESETTERS

This year five faculty or administration members are being honored for the unique role they play in the Centenary Community. Each is special to us not only for what they can teach us but also for their obvious care and concern for students.

The fine characteristics we find in these leaders are some of the significant reasons Centenary has remained a thriving small college oriented towards the individual.

Pacesetters, for your outstanding leadership and intense concern for our school, we thank you and salute you. People like you make our liberal arts education possible and we couldn't do without it!

WHO'S WHO

Who's Who is an honor bestowed upon a select group of Centenary Students by the Student Life Committee. Qualifications for this honor vary with each individual, but one is common to all, excellence. Whether it be in academics, campus activities, general personality or a combination of all three, these students stand out in Centenary Life. All are leaders in their own right and we congratulate them and the Student Life Committee for their selection.

The SGA also organizes and sponsors such all time favorites as All Campus Weekend, movies in the Smith Building and the Coffeehouse.

SGA OFFICERS: Mark Keddall, President; Ellen Cole, Vice President; Ann Greenough, Treasurer; and John Lambert, Secretary.

Conglomerate

That most distinguished of newspapers, the Centenary Conglomerate, has kept the campus up-to-date on current local events for many years. Through much hard work and dedication, the Conglomerate is delivered to the students and faculty each Wednesday. Although there are many obstacles in producing a weekly paper, not to mention trying to please everyone, the paper does arrive through the efforts of David Cole, Sharren Harrison, Martin Poole, Herries Edwards, Andy Shehee, Elaine McArdle, Jamie Killeen, Knox Andress, Patty McCormick, Tony Caldwell, Ann Greenough, Jenny Verhalen, Judy Sukol, Kathy Brodnax, Mike Graf, Greg Lee and Kizzy, not to mention — Lewin Humphrey, Dr. Brian W. Kovacs, Dr. L. Hughes Cox, Pete Ermes, Becky Murphy, Maurie Wayne, Joe Miller, John Purdy, Dean Erickson, and Big Brother.

KSCL once again went to the air as CENTENARY'S and Shreveport's FM alternative radio station. Many new people were seen sitting behind the mikes at KSCL's studio on the second floor of the SUB. Along with a good supply of albums from the record companies coming in, the station's plans to put up a new tower antenna were formalized, and the studio itself was partially re-wired and worked on to make it a better place to broadcast from. Early second semester a new audition turntable was purchased, and plans for possibly moving the studio were discussed. During the year, several remote broadcasts were made live, the ZTA slave sale and Dr. Webb's Inauguration Breakfast being two of the more memorable ones. No matter what changes come to KSCL now or in the future, it will always be Shreveport's "alternative" radio station.

The ever-present Resident Assistants went through rigorous training this year to prepare them for another year of dorm life. Their responsibilities include counseling, enforcement of college rules, and just "being there." For making dorm life much smoother and more fun, the R.A.'s deserve full credit.

With the start of a new year, dorm councils take shape in every dorm. The councils govern dorm life and enforce college rules. Made of selected members, the dorm councils also plan activities for all dorm members to participate in. For example — the Cline-James dance, and "Secret Santas" during the holiday season.

Cline Dorm Council consists of Will Phillips, Jim Hard-House Director, David Fleming, Mike Hainsfurther, Steve Kelly and Van Wilson. Jim Sears was also a member.

The Rivertowne Players of Marjorie Lyons Playhouse started their season of "firsts" with "The Runner Stumbles." Traveling to Baton Rouge with "Runner" the RTP'ers presented the play at the Louisiana College and University Theatre festival. There Patric McWilliams was selected as a nominee for the Irene Ryan Acting Competition. Their season continues with "The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wilde" and "Battle of Angels." Last spring MLP presented "Once upon a Mattress" and "The Visit."

The MLP community has other activities other than their plays. Demonstration Labs are required of the theatre majors and each spring the Great Hunt takes place. The annual Choir-RTP softball game pits the skills of the two teams in an exciting game for the sacred coffee cup. At the end of the spring semester the RTP Banquet is held where acting and technical awards are given. Immediately following the banquet "we all get drunk and don't go to church on Sunday."

This year's talented officers are: Kerri Rivers, President; Tommy Serio, Vice-President; Elaine Ades, Secretary-Treasurer; Becky Segers and Julie Van Tiem, Scrapbook.

CENTENARY COLLEGE CHOIR

The Centenary College Choir is a mixed choral group formed in 1941 by Dr. A. C. "Cheesey" Veran and now directed by Will K. Andress, an alumni of the choir. The organization, composed of forty-nine members, is a highly select group of students chosen each Spring.

Over the years, the choir has distinguished itself with two tours of the Orient, one to Great Britain, two lengthy engagements at Radio City Music Hall, nine Lions International conventions, as well as guest appearances, professional recordings, and regularly sponsored television series. The summer of 1977 saw the choir tour Europe. The choir will give over seventy-five concerts this year.

Alpha Sigma Chi is Centenary's honorary chemistry fraternity. They have various speakers from the chemistry profession besides their regular meetings and an end of the year party.

AED, the national premedical fraternity bases its membership upon an honorary basis and members must have a high GPA. AED is an active group sending representatives to the regional convention at Texas Tech. They also "sit in" on surgery in local hospitals, and have speakers of the different medical fields. They also sponsor a high school premed weekend.

The Biology Club is made of members interested in Biology, and takes many field trips to Arkansas, the coast, and central America. In the picture on the opposite page Sam Woolbert and Clinton Schmidt hold trophies won in the Beaver Hunt. Dr. Liles holds the beaver.

OPERA WORKSHOP

The Opera Workshop class meets weekly and acquaints the students with various types of opera styles, also giving them a chance to perform the works of the great masters.

In the fall a selected program from "Arias" was performed and "Dido and Aenas" was presented in the spring.

CHAMBER SINGERS

The Chamber Singers, directed by Dr. Harlan C. Snow, is an elite group of musicians selected by audition. This year they have performed music from periods. In the fall semester, concert, they performed Mozart's "Coronation Mass" and works by Brahms and Burtehude. At Christmas they gave a special concert of Christmas carols in Hamilton Hall. This spring they sang for Chapel at a Renaissance Banquet. They also performed as the chorus for the Opera Workshop Production of Dido and Aeneas. Not only do the Chamber Singers perform music of past ages, but they are also active in music of today by performing works written by composition majors at Hurley School of Music.

With all the social organizations on campus, there was a definite need for something different, and thus, Circle K was reactivated for the first time since the '60's. There were thirty charter members, making ours the largest chapter in the district. Some activities for the year were: a Halloween Trick-or-Treat at the children's wing of Confederate hospital; Christmas donut plates for a local nursing home; participation in the Poor Man's Supper and the Kiwanis Pancake Sale. This year's officers were: President — Brent Henley, Vice-President, Jeannine Dickens, Secretary — Tricia Cross, Treasurer — Liz Stockwell, and Historian — David Bell.

The Maroon Jackets are the official hostesses for Centenary. These young women receive this honor for high scholastic achievement throughout their college careers. They usher for the Convocations, meet visitors, and set an example of scholarship and dedication. The Maroon Jacket is the highest honor awarded to women at Centenary.

The Canterbury Club resumed its meetings this year at the Canterbury House across from the Playhouse. Weekly meetings complete with refreshments and interesting discussion, guest speakers, and informal parties were held throughout the year.

MSM

The Methodist Student Movement of MSM continued the tradition of Thursday night dinner and discussion this year. Meeting in Smith or the Coffeehouse, MSM presented a variety of topics for discussion and held several parties, one of the more memorable being the Halloween Party . . .

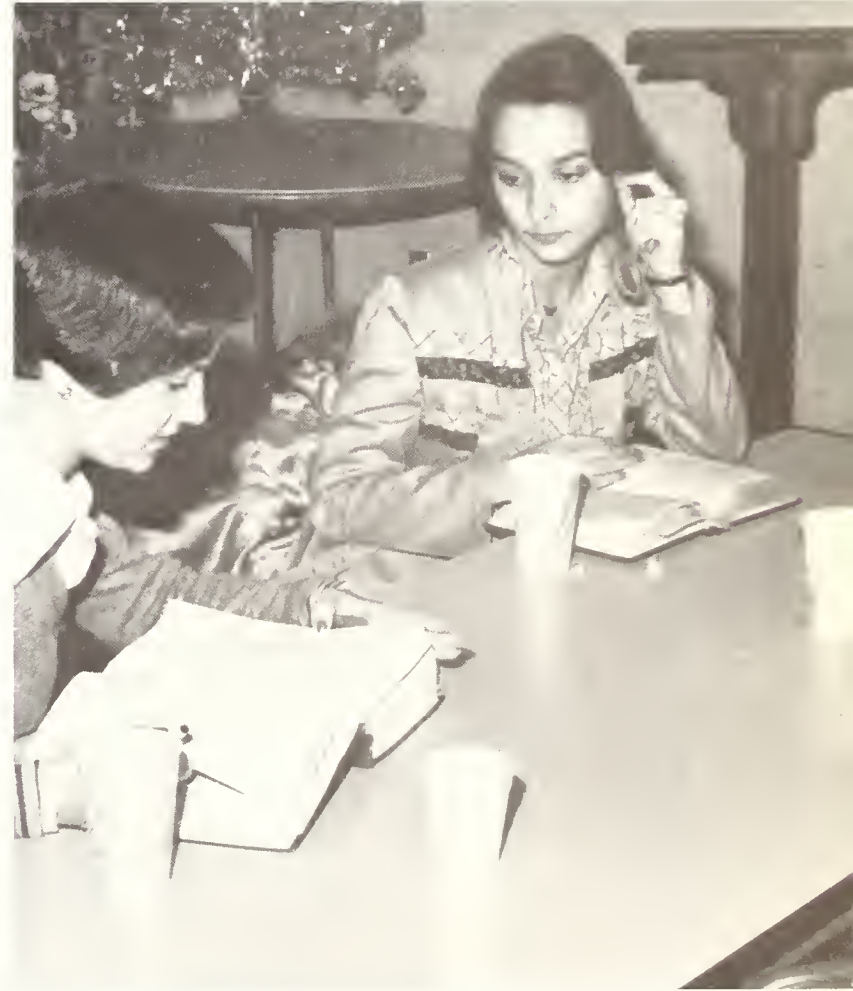

The Society for the Evaluation of Religious Thought at Centenary, otherwise known as SPEORTAC, had quite a few important events on its agenda this year. They included hosting luncheons for noted theologians Shubert Ogden and Charles Harsthorne, a Religion Departmental Orientation, and the publishing of "Reflections," a journal containing outstanding theological papers by three Centenary students. On the lighter side was an All Saint's Day party and some informal get-togethers. Diane Rohrer served as chairman and Robert Ed Taylor was the Faculty Advisor.

BSU

The Baptist Student Union led an active year with the students of Centenary planning many activities to take place at the BSU center on Woodlawn. Under the direction of Rev. Cleatice Sipes they had cookouts, service projects, and Bible studies.

ALPHA CHI

Alpha Chi is the honor fraternity based entirely upon scholarship. It consists of junior and senior students maintaining a cumulative grade point averages of 3.5 or better. With all the facets and pressures of college life placed on students, anyone who can maintain scholastic averages such as this certainly do deserve to be specially recognized.

Alpha Kappa Delta is the honorary sociology fraternity. This was just the club's second year on the Centenary campus and it continued to honor outstanding sociology students and to bring them together with the common interest in learning this social science.

Pre-Law club was established for students interested in a law related career. Students involved in this extra-curricular activity usually planned to attend law school. They spent time together learning about the legal profession.

PRE-LAW

JUDICIAL BOARD

The Judicial Board is the body that tries minor campus offenses, more serious dorm violations, and appeals from the dorm councils (upon the permission of the Dean). The Board is made up of students who are chosen by campus election. For this board to be effective, students should elect people whom they respect and those elected must have true understanding and concern for campus rules, fairmindedness, and impartiality. Cases may be appealed to the Student-Faculty Discipline Committee.

STUDENT FACULTY DISCIPLINE

The Student-Faculty Discipline Committee is made up of faculty members and students who are selected upon application. This is the highest judicial committee, and tries the most serious campus offenses. Cases tried by this committee can be appealed only to the Dean.

The Honor Court is made up of selected students, and it tries cases which pertain to the obedience of the Honor Code. There is much controversy as to whether the Honor Code is an effective method of discipline against receiving "unauthorized aid." While some believe it is highly misused, others believe that the Honor Code gives students more responsibility and self-reliance. Nevertheless, the Court has a hard and sometimes thankless job. It must be openminded and unprejudiced and all-in-all it does its job very well.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

Founded on principles of scholarship and leadership, Omicron Delta Kappa is known as one of the nation's most prestigious honor fraternities. Centenary's chapter maintains that dignity and continues to be recognized as an organization of outstanding members of the college community.

The Psychology Club got off to a fresh start this year with a complete reorganization. Instrumental in that change was the adoption of a formal charter, approved by the Student Senate. The club sponsors occasional speakers and films to enhance the study of psychology and to supplement class material.

The Stage Band under the direction of Mr. Causey gave the Centenary fans infinite support during basketball games and pep rallies. The stage band practices weekly and gives several concerts during the year.

The Rifle Team regrouped this fall to begin practice at the National Guard Armory and hoped to attend some competitions.

Each year Centenary is invaded by many new faces and among these people there are some very special students. They come from other countries, bringing with them a taste of many cultures unique to our own. They are involved in campus organizations, sororities and fraternities, and take part in college and intramural sports.

Some of them stay for only one semester, others receive their degree here, but despite the length of their stay, they contribute to campus life and help to extend our knowledge and understanding of the outside world. It can be hard at times, but we hope that the foreign students will look back on their stay here as a rewarding experience.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

OFF CAMPUS STUDENTS: The Off Campus Organization, new to Centenary this year, was formed to bring more of a sense of community and college involvement to those students who find their homes away from the beautiful Centenary Campus. Among other things, the organization planned and held bingo games and table tennis matches.

OFF CAMPUS STUDENTS

Centenary's Greek system is formally organized and supervised by the Interfraternity Council and the Panhellenic Council. Each council is charged with the responsibility of maintaining good relations among Greeks, deciding and enforcing rush procedure, and acting as liaison between Greeks and the administration. Greek life continues to be a major facet of social and academic life on campus, and the Greek councils work diligently to uphold that standing.

Greek council projects include fund raising dinners, service projects such as visiting and singing at nursing homes, an annual faculty tea, rush banquets, an ice cream "double dip" party, and promotion of civic charities.

The 1977-78 year marked Chi Omega's fiftieth year on Centenary's campus. The year began with a successful rush and continued with such activities as kid naps, service projects, the Barnyard dance, Christmas Party, Parent-Daughter Banquet, 50th Anniversary reunion, and spring formal. Chi Omegas were seen in many facets of Centenary life from Choir, to cheerleaders, Pom Pon Girls, R.A.'s and Maroon Jackets. It is easy to see that they are a very versatile group of young women. So whenever you see the "X" and the "Horsheshoe" remember the Chi Omega.

The Zeta's began the year with a great rush. Twenty-one young ladies were pledged, producing one of the best pledge classes ever. The rest of the year was highlighted by the selection of Big and Little Sisters, "Swamp party," Las Vegas Night, Slave Sale, pledge-sponsored Halloween and Christmas parties, Homecoming tea, and a great White Violet Formal. Since Zeta is a service organization, they kept busy with the Heart Fund Drive, Open Ear, Unicef, and St. Jude's Children's Hospital projects, among others. Zeta's are active in many areas of campus life, as well: cheerleaders, pom-pon girls, Maroon Jackets, SGA officers, the Choir, theater productions, YONCOPIN editors, Centenary Lady, Conglomerate editor, Pacesetters, and various committees. This year is one to be long remembered by Zeta Tau Alpha, and the turquoise and silver.

KAPPA

The Alpha Iota chapter of Kappa Alpha Order started the year off with a bang and the pledging of Greg Caldwell, Scott Eastopp, Doug Garner, Trey Henry, Jim McClelland, Brian O'Neil, Eric Reinert, Lionel Richard, Jim Rivera, Harry Stern, Tony Stevens, Kevin Trachier, and Merrill Wautlet, Jr.

Our usual reputation was upheld during the year with such events as Pledging Party, Jungle Party, Christmas Party, Pledge Party, and finally, the ultimate — Old South.

The elusive championship in football which had slipped away from the KA's the previous year was captured in a hard fought game with the Autumn Dogs. In pool intramurals, three of the four finalists were KA's.

Again, that noble tradition of men . . . the Flathead Club, was present, and in many members' cases, being the guiding light in their sojourn through Naryland.

All in all a good year, and good time was had by all in the house with the cannon.

The men of the red brick house at Washington and Oak had a busy and exciting year. It began with fall rush and continued with such social events as the 21st annual Pajama Party, Texas-OU Weekend, a Halloween Party given by their little sisters, Christmas Formal and Black and White.

Besides social activities, the Sigs were seen in all phases of campus life. Dorm Council, S.G.A., R.A.'s, Open Ear Staff Members, Varsity Sports, as well as intramurals. They also kept the Intramurals trophy for two years and won the scholarship trophy for '77-'78.

The Sigs were supported by their little sisters: Eleece Bearden (Pajama Girl), Jane Dillingham, Diana Graves, Bobra Lohnes, Mimi Mitchell, Becky Murphy, and GERALYN PEACE. Becky Murphy also served as Sweetheart.

Because fraternities are not just social organizations, Kappa Sigma did service projects such as Open Ear Drive and having a Christmas party for the Children at Shriners Hospital. So it is easy to see they are a well-rounded group of young men.

The men of Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity were very active in the community and on Centenary campus this year. Tekes served as members of Open Ear, SGA, KSCL, Conglomerate, varsity athletics, Circle K, and the Centenary Choir.

Several parties given this year included the Levee party, Graveyard, the Nest, May Lake, and Christmas parties. These were followed by the Mice Races and highlighted by the Red Carnation Ball.

Of course their activities were supported by the Order of Diana: Elaine Ades (Sweetheart), Betsy Maguire, Linda Warren, Ellen Cole, Betsey Stockinger, Jan Nash, Susan Colvin, Lucie Thornton, Vicki McCann, Eileen Martin, Cathy Lensing, Betsy Stockinger, and Ginny Garrard.

The Eta Rho chapter of Theta Chi fraternity began its year with the pledging of some of the finest young men on campus. They then immediately set about celebrating at their annual Mafia Party. Parties that followed included Demon Weekend and the Toilet Bowl game, a talent show that would make Chuck Barris blush, a Christmas party given by their Pledge Class, and the social highlight of the spring semester, the Theta Chi Sweetheart Formal.

Other activities included the first annual Haunted House and the Regional Convention hosted by the brothers and the Centenary chapter.

Theta Chi became more active than ever this year in intramurals and college politics with brothers in the SGA, Judicial Board, Dorm Councils, Open Ear, Church Careers, Who's Who, Pacesetters, and other campus organizations. The chapter's president, Paul Rogers, was chosen Centenary Gent for the 1977-78 school year.

The presence and support of Theta Chi's fine little sister organization, The Daughters of the Crossed Swords made the year a complete success.

This past basketball season was one of cheers and tears, but it was a season that ended on a note of promise.

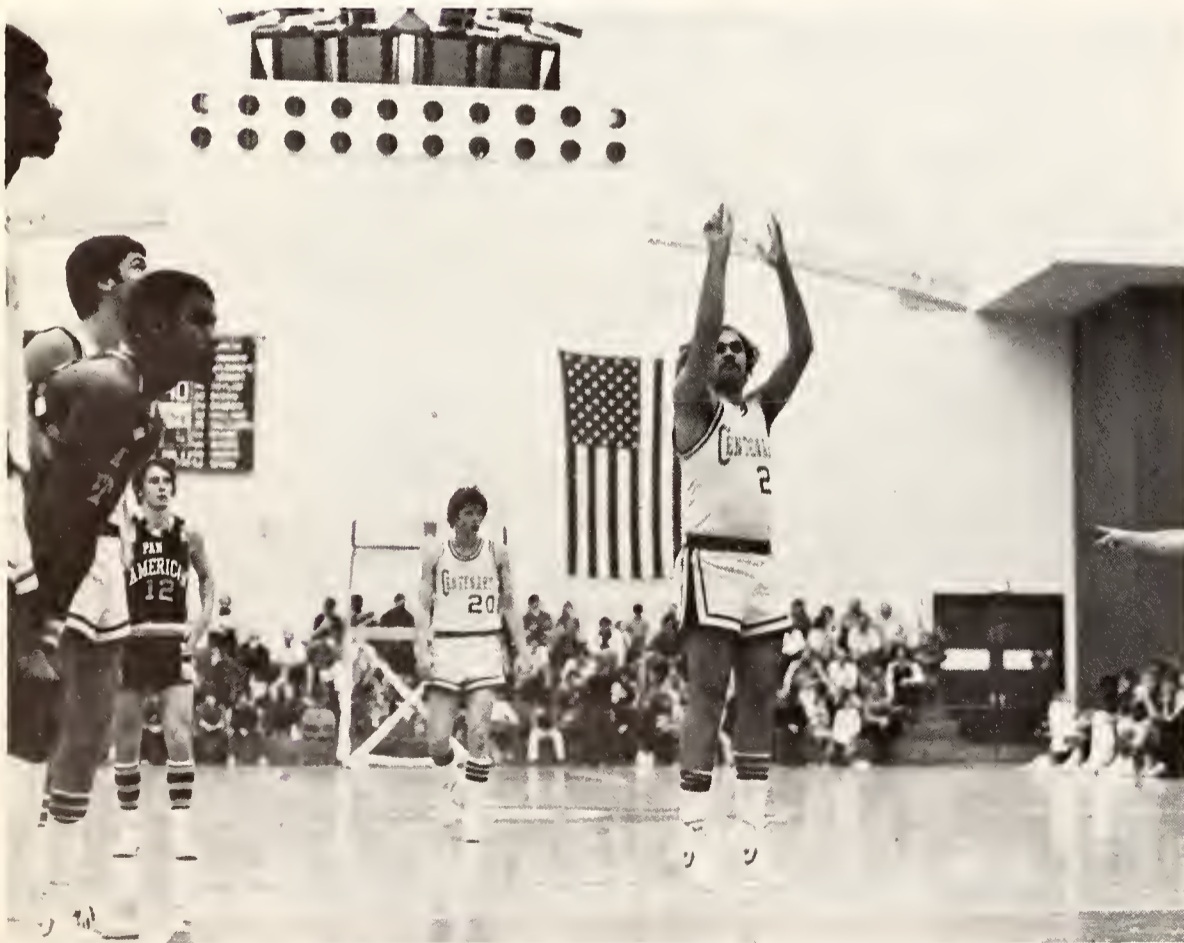

The fall semester seemed to be plagued with problems. First, the Gents' leading scorer, Chris Cummings, was lost due to academic problems. Then backup guard Kevin Starke transferred due to personal reasons. The coup de grace came when head coach Riley Wallace was dismissed at mid-season.

However, rays of hope materialized during the spring semester under new head coach Tommy Canterbury. It began with the Gents upsetting Northeast. One week later George Lett made his debut as a Centenary Gent with a twenty-six point, fourteen rebound effort as the Gents defeated Hardin-Simmons.

Looking to next season, the Gents will be losing only two seniors. They are starters Bobby White and Bill Schmidt. But, with so much young talent the Gents should have no trouble reaching the top.

HOME COMING

Homecoming at Centenary took place on February 25th, and seven women were honored by being selected to the 1978 Homecoming Court. The basketball game took place in the Gold Dome and a Homecoming Dance was held later. Several parties and gatherings of alumni took place with the renewing of old and sometimes forgotten friendships, and there was the customary decorating of sorority and fraternity houses.

Members of the court were: Melanie Patterson, Becky Murphy, Mary Beall, Emily Oppenlander, and Amanda McCoy, with Lydia Adams chosen as First Maid and Bobra Lohnes honored as Queen.

CHEERLEADERS

The Centenary Cheerleaders added a new dimension to Gent basketball this season. They practiced hard, and it was evident by their performance at the games.

The cheerleaders led pep rallies in the cafe and cheers at the games. Their devotion to the Gents was shown by their attending several out-of-town games. The enthusiasm and precision of this squad will be hard to match in the future.

ZODIAC

The Centenary Pom-Pon Girls supported Gent basketball by dancing and cheering at games. The team practiced hard and performed well rehearsed routines, but were only able to schedule a few half-time and pre-game shows. Even with this trouble they were present at almost every home game and their cheering and enthusiasm could be counted on.

GIRLS

B A S E B A L L

Baseball at Centenary experienced a period of transition this past year which marked the beginning of the "Farrar era." Farrar refers to the new head baseball coach James Farrar. In this first year, hustle, hard work, and discipline were instituted to form a winning attitude among the players. This desire to win plus good hitting served to make the team extremely competitive.

The Gents were fairly young, containing nine freshmen, three sophomores, two juniors, and five seniors to make up a team of nineteen players. Mike Hainsfurther was the only four year letterman.

With continued desire, the baseball team should return prestige to a sport which has been ignored on this campus for too long.

The Centenary College Men's Tennis team was presented with several unusual circumstances this past year. Awaiting them was a rigid schedule which included six new schools and the top three positions on the team were held by freshmen Mike Bender, Richard Wilson, and Will Downs. Their performances plus that of juniors Van Wilson and Charles Kesilman, and senior Clayton Davis caused Coach Bill Causey to comment that the team was one hundred percent better than last year's squad. Such an evaluation can only mean one thing, success is just over the horizon for the Gents netters.

GOLF

Definitely one of the brightest spots in Centenary athletics was the performance given by the golf team. They consistently showed excellence during a fall campaign in which the Gents won three of five tournaments entered, including an upset of the defending national champion, the University of Houston.

Such performances will continue to happen due to the youth of the squad. Out of a team of nine, four were sophomores, and three were freshmen.

Top performer for the Gents was sophomore Hal Sutton. He had tremendous support, however, from sophomores Larry Shannahan, Paul Sommerfeldt, and Craig Callaway, freshmen Jimmy Strickland, Jim Travis, and Todd Hingtgen, junior Byron May, and senior Jim Donner.

The team was coached by Tommy Canterbury. Now, after having once tasted success, they will expect more of the same in the future.

GYMNASTICS

Centenary College broadened its athletic program this past year with the addition of women's gymnastics. However, this was not a typical first year team. One unusual circumstance was that the team contained four freshmen as the top performers. Even more unusual was that these four girls were possibly the four best female gymnasts in the country to compete for one school.

Foremost was Kathy Johnson, the nation's number one ranked female gymnast. Not far behind in calibre were the other three freshmen, Beth Johnson, Gigi de Jong, and Jeanelle Marie Berthing.

All four were proteges of Vannie Edwards, the man chosen to direct the team. Edwards' credentials were and are impressive, as he was considered one of the premier gymnastic coaches in the country.

Also competing for Centenary were sophomores Jean Turner and Mary Beall.

This kind of youth and energy, plus the expertise of Coach Edwards will definitely keep Centenary at the top of women's gymnastics for the next three years.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Centenary's second women's varsity addition was tennis. This team was quite young containing four freshmen and three sophomores out of a team of nine.

Strong performances were given by sophomore Holly Haygood and two freshmen, Evelyn Hamilton and Jenny Verhalen.

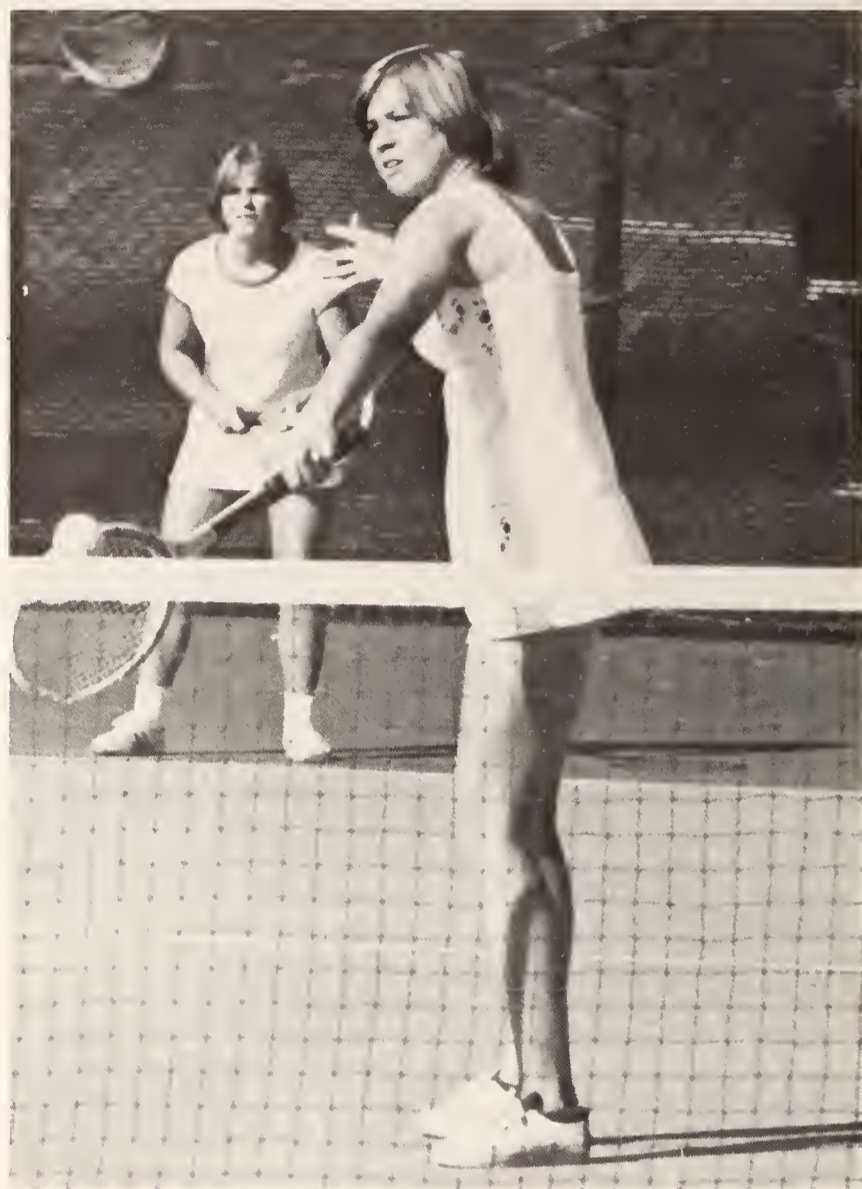

The team was rounded out by seniors Gail Nolte, Ellen Cole, and Casie Hesemann, sophomore Mary Galin, and freshmen Penny Potter and Paula Stevens.

These girls were blessed with an excellent tennis mind when Sima Niholic was named coach.

The girls youth, plus a tough schedule, all played important factors in the team performance. However, it will not be long before the Centenary women's tennis team becomes a force to be reckoned with.

COUNTRY

R O S S

The cross country team at Centenary displayed signs of growth and discipline in this its sixth year of existence. Members of the team conditioned themselves to long distance running by practicing hard to strengthen their endurance. As a result their performance was looked upon with pride by Centenary.

S O C C E R

Centenary's soccer team competed on the club level, and played schools in the Ark-La-Tex area. They were one of the better teams in the area which enabled them to have a very fine spring.

The team received leadership from Coach Glenn Evans and team captain Dave Barnett. Other outstanding players were seniors Clinton Schmidt, Alfonso McLean, Ali Olaida, and sophomores John Munn and Eric Reinert.

It was an excellent year for the program and the success it enjoyed should continue in the future.

INTRA-MURALS

The intramural season began with excitement this year. The first sport played was football. Each fraternity fought long and hard, but when it was all over the Kappa Alpha fraternity came out on top by upsetting the Kappa Sigma fraternity and the Autumn Dogs.

Next in line was volleyball with both men's and women's divisions. Sounds of students in competition could be heard from Haynes gym almost nightly.

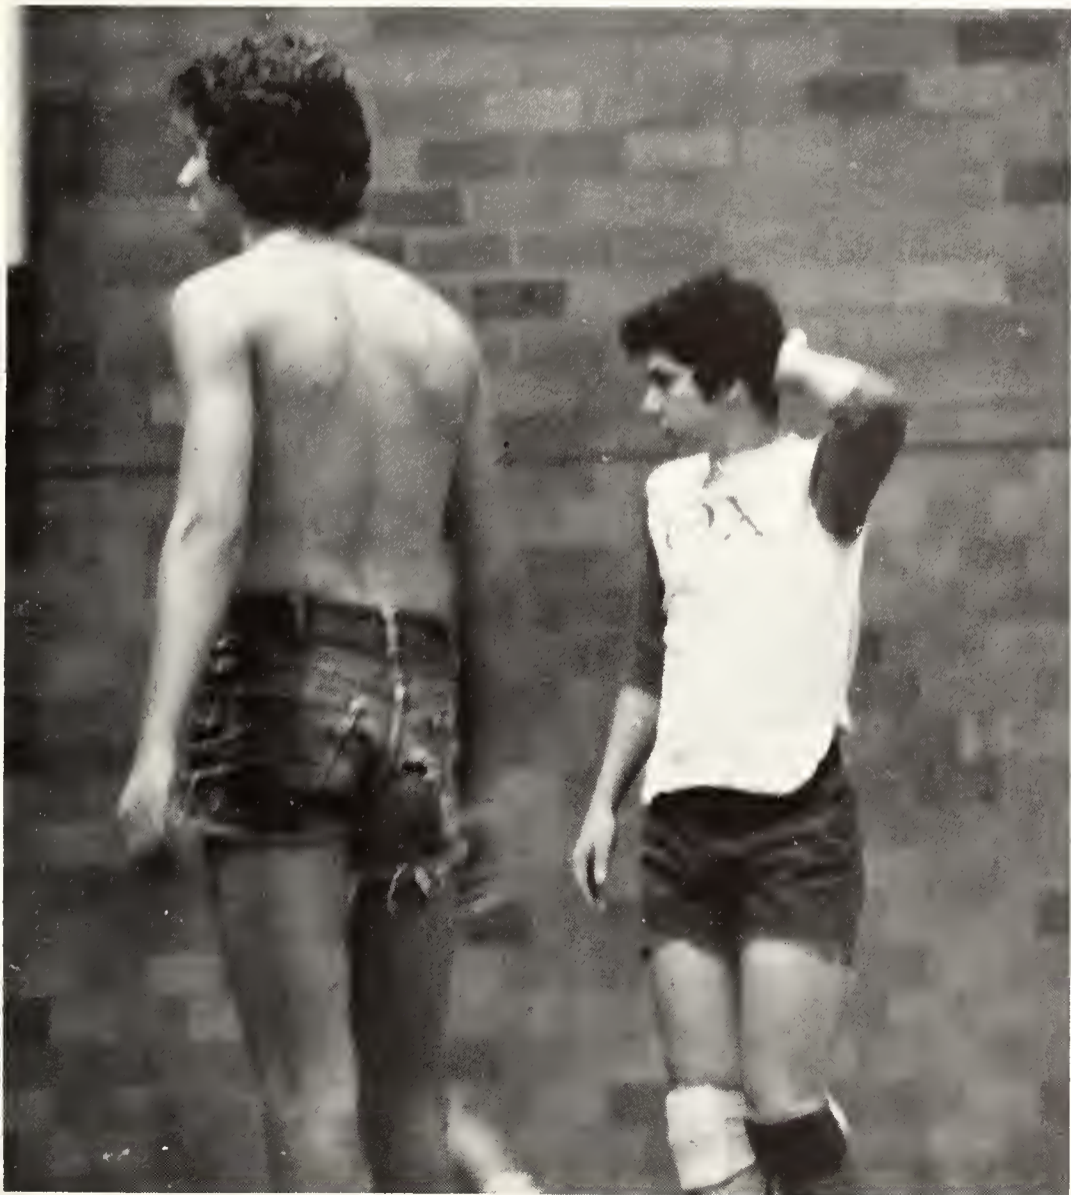

The rest of the season consisted of table games, basketball, cross country and softball. Most of the teams were very evenly matched and in many cases luck played a major part in the outcome.

TO THEE, CENTENARY

Such a glorious past we have shared with our forefathers,
We have held for a moment their torch,
and continued the march.
We are but pages in this book of noble heraldry; the Seekers of the Truth.

We are the faces seen on this campus.
We are the reason it continues,
For without our laughter, tears, and searching hearts,
No truth is found amidst these walls.

We are the lives that have been molded and guided here.
We are the dreams of those passing through before us.
Our lives represent the success that was found here years ago,
And that will be found here in years to come.

"Oh, CENTENARY, thy counsel will we carry with us always.
Thou hast taught us many things,
Thou hast shown us our way,
For we are but pages in this thy book of noble heraldry;
The Finders of the Truth."

Ode to Becky

After the Deadline Has Been Made

Becky's really worried,
Amanda's quite distressed,
They've both turned their sections in,
Now what about the rest?

Deadline's February fifteenth,
Sue B's out selling ads,
Carol's got an ulcer now,
This room looks really sad.

Maurie's called six times today,
The darkroom is still locked,
John Purdy's down in Florida,
Julie's out with a jock.

Ron can't take those pictures,
And Ulf's not really fit,
Will's leaving tomorrow,
Can the Journal print it?

John Purdy's still in Florida,
Where Kathy'd rather be,
Tim's out in Texas,
Who has got the key?

Through all the trials and troubles,
The YONCOPIN has come,
The fact it's in your hands right now —
Is Miracle, Number One.
